

Despina

Use this chart to compare the representation of the Sun

The sun in Māori culture	The sun in Egyptian Culture
Maori believed that in the old days the sun went across the sky very quickly.they thought that maui slowed the sun. 	For Egyptian culture the sun was a god named Osirus he was the god of the dead. It was believed he was reborn in the morning and died in the afternoon. 